

FOCUS Marines Foundation

Continuing the Commitment_____

Spring 2020

Looking Toward the Future...

As they say, time marches on. For our nation's veterans, this means they've moved on after their lives in the military — they're working, going to school, and raising families. Far too often, everyday life gets in the way of these veterans taking care of themselves and dealing with their injuries, both visible and invisible.

FOCUS Marines Foundation vows to meet veterans where they are. To reach those who have moved on and are out in the civilian world, outreach efforts have expanded to include employers, colleges and universities, and other veteran-support organizations. Collaborating with the community atlarge will improve the chances of finding those veterans who are merely surviving, not thriving.

Tools provided during the FOCUS Course and the resulting mind-shift to "what's next" allow veterans to imagine what could be. They leave the program with set goals and expectations of themselves to build that brighter future. Even more importantly, they have a new network holding them accountable to live up to their potential. Nothing motivates Marines better than Marines. They go back to what they know. And, who they are.

New Inspiration from John O'Leary

In his new book, IN AWE, John O'Leary invites us to return to the joy of navigating life like a child. He identifies the five senses children innately possess, explains why those senses fade, and shares emotional, humorous, inspirational and actionable stories of how we can return to them. Strengthened by the past, and empowered for the future, IN AWE shows us how to seek fresh insights, reach for new solutions, connect with those around us, and live our best lives. It's time to rediscover our childlike sense of wonder to unleash inspiration, meaning and joy. It's time to relearn what we once knew was possible. It's time to live IN AWE.

IN AWE will be released by Penguin Random House on May 5, 2020. Pre-order your copy today to receive access to fun, interactive bonus features emailed to you in the lead-up to the book's release!

From a Marine wife while her husband was attending a FOCUS Course:

"I look forward to seeing the changes that will come about into his life because of the dedication of your foundation. And, I believe there will be changes. He is a good man and I have always felt the Marine was still in him. Your program will help him find that Marine again. I am so proud of him for being brave enough to peel away the layers and search deep to discover who he is and who he wants to be going forward!"
